Is Self an Illusion?

THE 35TH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
ON THE PSYCHOLOGY OF THE SELF

Dear colleagues,

Is Self an Illusion? – This, our title of the 35th Annual Conference of the Psychology of the Self, challenges presenters and participants to re-focus on a central thrust of Heinz Kohut's inspiring contributions. Exploration begins with the pre-conference, multiple morning sessions that relate self to modes of creativity. The unique afternoon session master class traces the creation and early development of the sense of self with others. Then each of the four panels approaches the puzzles of "self" from a different standpoint, each considering the questions as they apply to clinical practice and theoretical understanding. Plenary 1 considers how to reconcile the multiplicity of experiential states with a sense of a cohesive self. Plenary 2 considers how to reconcile a patient's goal to achieve self-autonomy (an independent center for initiative) with the sense of embeddedness in a relational world. Plenary 3 asks: what are the sources of leverage for therapeutic change in the sense of self? In Plenary 4, four of our philosopher colleagues complete the circle of our inquiry as they use their expertise to consider: What is meant by self?

In addition we are honored to have two major pioneer contributors to the development of Self Psychology: Russell Meares as the Keynote Speaker and Estelle Shane as the Kohut Memorial Lecturer.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

This conference is intended for psychoanalysts, psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, psychiatric nurses, marriage and family therapists, professional counselors and clinical professional counselors.

The conference is organized to facilitate maximum opportunity for questions, comments and dialogue between the audience and the presenters, allowing clinicians to engage in an extensive variety of topics relevant to the field of Self Psychology. At the close of this conference, the participant will:

1. Track the clinical interplay between changing affective motivational states and the maintenance of a cohesive sense of self.
2. Contrast the clinical experiences that lead to a sense of self autonomy with the experiences that lead to an appreciation of context and the sense of embeddedness in a relational world.
3. Appreciate the principal sources of leverage toward positive change in the sense of self during therapeutic sessions.
4. Recognize what changes occur in the sense of self during a successful session or sessions.
5. Think more broadly about the place of a sense of self in humankind's pursuit of achieving each person's fullest potential.

Conference registration fee includes; Name badges, program guide, conference syllabus, attendee list, conference folder, continental breakfast, and coffee breaks.

Online Registration Available!

You can now register online at www.iapsp.org/conference/. We encourage you to take advantage of this secure and easy process. A confirmation letter will be sent via email within two weeks of receipt of your registration and payment information.

SESSION SELECTIONS

Due to the number of concurrent sessions and limited space, session assignments will be made strictly on a first-paid basis. Early registration is strongly advised to ensure a place in your preferred sessions. Once we have reached maximum capacity, no further admissions will be allowed.

Please refer to the program to make your selection and then indicate your selection on the registration form. Return your completed form with payment information no later than September 24, 2012, to be eligible for the early registration fees.
