Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education Center

<https://www.ilholocaustmuseum.org/>

The mission of Illinois Holocaust Museum & Education Center is expressed in our founding principle: Remember the Past, Transform the Future. The Museum is dedicated to preserving the legacy of the Holocaust by honoring the memories of those who were lost and by teaching universal lessons that combat hatred, prejudice, and indifference. The Museum fulfills its mission through the exhibition, preservation, and interpretation of its collections; and through education programs and initiatives that foster the promotion of human rights and the elimination of genocide.

American Indian Center Chicago

<http://aicchicago.org/>

Established in 1953 as the first urban Indian Center in the country, AIC promotes fellowship among Indian people of all Tribes living in metropolitan Chicago; creates bonds of understanding and communication between Indians and non-Indians in this city; sustains cultural, artistic, and avocational pursuits; and perpetuates Indian cultural values. AIC focuses on the arts by offering workshops such as drum making, moccasin making, and by housing the first and only art gallery space dedicated to the promotion and education of Native artists in the city of Chicago.

Mindworks: The Science of Thinking

<https://www.chicagobooth.edu/mindworks>

Mindworks showcases the work and ideas of world-renowned scientists who help advance our collective understanding of the inner workings of human behavior. Free and open to the public, Mindworks welcomes visitors to explore its interactive exhibits and museum atmosphere, take part in engaging, hands-on research studies, earn prizes for participating, and apply insights from behavioral science to help understand and improve their lives and communities.

The DuSable Museum

<https://www.dusablemuseum.org/>

In 1961, with a few dedicated colleagues and a dream, the artist/educator/writer/activist Margaret Taylor Burroughs established our nation's first independent museum celebrating Black culture. The Ebony Museum of Negro History and Art (later renamed as the DuSable Museum) was inaugurated that very year in the Burroughs' home on Chicago's iconic South Side. Burroughs was proud that the Museum was "the only one that grew out of the indigenous Black community."

Frank Lloyd Wright's Robie House

<https://www.flwright.org/tour/robie-house>

Completed in 1910, the Robie House (1908-1910) is the consummate expression of Wright's Prairie style. Robie House sparked a revolution in residential architecture that still reverberates today and is considered one of the most important buildings in architectural history. The house is a masterpiece of the Prairie style and a forerunner of modernism in architecture.
